

We remember those situations where children are again in the frontline of historic prejudices and injustices.

We remember enmity between particular nations where the continuing tit-for-tat retaliations seem to spiral increasingly out of control.

20 WKLV +RORFDXVW OHPRLDO 'D\ WKHVH LVVXHV VHHP PRUH SRLJQDQW and we are aware of just how little progress we have really made since those dark days of the last world war.

We pray for all victims, and the perpetrators, of genocide and other forms of institutional hatred, killing and discrimination.

Lord, we pray for peace in those and all places – but for the true peace that comes only when our relationships are right with you.

But in asking for peace, we recognise our own stubbornness at times, and must confess that we are not always ready to forgive
and to build anew,
to turn the other cheek and seek a new way.

In the dark areas of the world, may you shining light bring new hope and new love.

We pray for our country,

Remind us, Lord, that you are with us in the darkness.
When the shades of night seem long, and we cannot clearly see the way ahead,
then we feel your hand in our hand, taking us forward
one step at a time.

When there are tears in our eyes, and we cannot form the words in our hearts

WKHQ ZH KH DU \RXU YRLFH VD\LQJ 'RQW EH DIUDLG , DP KHUH

Alleluia. Praise be to You, Living and eternal Lord.

All Amen.

Brian Hudson

Eucharistic prayer for Mothering Sunday

Fourth Sunday in Lent

Based on Julian of Norwich and Hosea 11

We praise you, blessed Trinity:
your great power, our Father;
your deep wisdom, our Mother;
your great love, our Lord.
In the beginning your Spirit brooded over the waters and brought forth all created things.
As a mother you loved your people Israel and called your children out of Egypt.
You taught them to walk in your way,
you took them in your arms,
bent down to them and fed them.
When they went astray you did not let loose your anger:
compassion grew warm within you,
for you are God and not a mortal,
the Holy One in our midst.
Through Sarah, Rebekah and Rachel,
through Ruth and Hannah,
you brought to birth children of promise,
to be patriarchs, priests and prophets.
To accomplish your loving purpose,
Elizabeth bore John the Baptist, last of the prophets, and Mary bore Jesus, our Brother in being,
our Mother in mercy, our Saviour from evil.
Therefore with all your people in heaven and on earth
we sing the triumphant hymn of your glory:

All Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest!
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest!

Mothering Sunday – Introduction to a Eucharist prayer

And here we come, this Mothering Sunday, to celebrate the one

ZKR JLYHV ÀHVK WR ZKDW ORYH

is really all about.

We invite you to lay down your worries,
your pre-occupations, and your fears, and to come to share at this table – where God lays out his love for us all.

Hd ye (a)5.6 s re65.5 (n48 Td[(a)5.5 (nw)-10.3 (il)6 (e (h)5.2 (a)5 (ro)10..5 (lei)3.4 lh)6.4 f)

[The Lord Jesus on the night he was betrayed took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said:

'This is my body which is broken for you.

'R WKL V LV UHPHPEUDQFH RI PH ¶

In the same way he took the cup also after supper, saying:

'This cup is the new covenant in my blood.

'R WKL V DV RIWHQ DV \RX GULQN LW LQ UHPHPEUDQFH RI PH

For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.']

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Send down the Holy Spirit upon us and upon creation's fruit

WKDW ZH PD\ ;QG KHDOLQJ LQ WKH EURNHQ EUHDG

and peace through the shedding of his blood.

May we, his fellow-workers here,

be refashioned by his grace

WKDW DOO KLV ZRUN PD\ EH IXO;OOHG

and all things sing your praise,

one God, Trinity of love.

All Amen.

God of all creation

For environmental issues or One World Week

God of all creation,

in your teeming and orderly world,

we have disturbed the balance –

the rich forcing the poor to wreck environments;

the ripping and spoiling of your creation

in order that we may have convenience, comfort and abundance.

Help us to care –

to share in the renewing of hearts, of lives, of landscape.

As we come to worship a God who gives everything for us,

KHOS XV WR OHDYH EHKLOG RXU RZQ VHO;VKQHV V

Help us to restore and see restored what has been destroyed, even if it means inconvenience for us.

True Inclusivity

Within the context of Communion

' H D U * R G

we confess that sometimes we give in to what are often irrational fears.
Strange people and places can make us feel anxious and edgy.
We are hesitant to welcome others into what we regard as our own space.
Almost without knowing it,
we establish safe and familiar territories

D Q G K H G J H W K H P U R X Q G Z L W K V H O I M X V W L ¿ F D W L R Q

We know it will not do.
We know it goes against your nature.
Your love crosses all boundaries to gather all peoples and makes no distinctions – and neither should ours.
We seek your help.

We hear you invite us to your table and to share your broken bread

D Q G Z H ¿ Q G W K D W H Y H U \ R Q H L V J L Y H Q D S O D F H

and none are turned away.
Your love is not choosy, nor hesitant, nor forced.
Your love is open, gracious, accepting.
Sometimes ours is not.
And therefore, in our world,
classes and clubs divide and what you made to be one human family is torn by fear and greed.

As we come to your table, therefore,
help us reclaim those yearnings for a kingdom where all are welcome and wanted, D U P H G D Q G H P E U D F H G
even as Jesus stretched out his arms for us.
Amen.

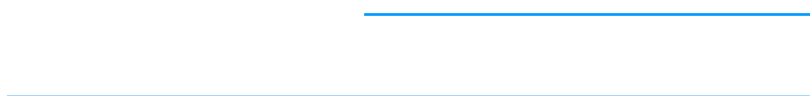

' X Q F D Q : L O V R Q

Praise the Lord for Harvest

Based on Psalm 65:5b-11a

Praise the Eternal One!
People on land and sea, trust in the Most High.
Our God calms the roar of the seas,
and softens the turmoil of the peoples.
So shout of the things God has done!

We are glad that there is growth and joy and satisfaction.

All Here, in blossom and fruitfulness, shine all the colours of the rainbow.

Your promise never fails.

All Creation tells the everlasting story of your goodness towards us.

It is written in your handiwork and whispered on the breeze.

All And we are part of it, called to shape the future,
to care for the earth,
and to share with one another.

Therefore,
give us grace to do all that is Christlike so that we may bear fruit in daily acts of goodness and reap the harvest of our souls.

Amen.

' X Q F D Q : L O V R C

Communion for Harvest

Paise fro

The heavens proclaim God's glory, their dome God's handicraft:
day to the following day,
night to night
tell God's story.

No speech, no word,
no voice is heard.
Yet their music sounds across the world,
announcing themselves to remotest peoples!

The sun pitches its tent in the sea,
happy as a bridegroom,
exulting like a runner,
eager to win the race!

Rising from one end of the heavens
the sun travels to the other, completing a circuit
and all are blessed by its rays.
Amen.

: H R H U W K L V , 5 , 6 + 6 2 ' $ % 5 ($ ' L Q U H P H P E U D Q F H R I D G L Y L G H G E \ D Q F L H Q W O R \ D O W L H V D Q G Z K R K D Y H V X
the hope of peace which still shines in Northern Ireland, and wherever F R P P X Q L W L H V D U H L Q F R Q À L F W

: H R H U W K H V H 5 , & (& $. (6 P D G H I U R P W K H V W D S O H countries. Let them represent the rich and varied cultures of those lands, and be a joyful sign that the peoples of the east and the west have so much to give one another.

: H R H U W K H V H 2 $ 7 & $. (6 W K H I R R G R I Q R U W K H U Q O D those for whom harshness of climate and terrain make life a constant struggle, and be a sign of work justly rewarded.

: H R H U W K L V 6 + 2 5 7 % 5 ($ ' Z K L F K E U L Q J V W R P L Q G F K young lives and all those who care for them into the next generation, and let its richness and sweetness be a sign of Sabbath rest.

: H R H U W K L V 2 5 * $ 1 , & : + 2 / (0 ($ / % 5 ($ ' / H W L W U H S U H the earth and our responsibility towards the natural world, and let it be a sign of wholeness for one world.

: H R H U E U H D G V I U R P P D Q \ O D Q G V @ P * ¥ or one world. @ P * ¥ or th60.3 (i)265 ((i)265 (m)>13 (ybow)-1.5 dl)7.4cy b12.6 r20.1 (s-1.5 k)274.1 (0)35.6 ((f)5.5 oe)065 r you140.3 .

|

So you called one people, to be a light to all the nations, revealed to them the Law
and spoke to them through the prophets;

So unite us in the Spirit that our life together may build one Church to be a living sign of justice and peace until all things in heaven and on earth are reconciled to you, through Jesus Christ, in whom all are at one in the fellowship of the Father and the Spirit.

All Amen.

Colin Thompson

Eucharistic prayer for All Saints

Lord, we praise you that the story of your grace is full of names, women and men with many failings, surprised by your call, transformed by your love.

Today we remember them with thanks:

Abraham our father, who was your friend,
the laughter of Sarah, the faithfulness of Ruth,
Moses the liberator and law-giver,

' D Y L G W K H N L Q J W K H S R H W D Q G P X V L F L D Q
who saw from afar the One who was to come.

So when the time was ripe,

you sent Jesus your Son, our great High Priest,

Z K R L Q W K H G D \ V R I K L V À H V K

O H D U Q H G R E H G L H Q F H L Q W K H V F K R R O R I V X H U L Q J

and who, sharing our weakness, sympathizes with us in our struggles.

He befriended sinners and ate with outcasts;

people came to him burdened and sick and he made them free and whole.

Therefore with all your people in heaven and on earth

we sing the triumphant hymn of your glory:

[The Lord Jesus on the night he was betrayed took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said:

With blithe saints whose laughter lifts us, with irascible saints who drive us to distraction –
and to God – with humble, anonymous saints, who have no memorial but whose name lives for ever:

All With holy women and holy men whose lives show forth the wholeness of God, with holy children who teach us the wonder and joy of life:

With this unlikely fellowship, who make human the depth and riches and power and grace of life before God, we celebrate the gift of life and the call to faith:

All Bring us with your saints to glory everlasting.

From Claremont United Church of Christ (Congregational), Claremont, California, adapted by Colin Thompson

True Saints

As many as the leaves golden in autumn blowing along the streets
are your saints.

As precious as bales gathered in the barns
R U V W R U H G D W W K H ¿ H O G V L G H
are your saints.

As strong as the rocks
graining the hillsides or forming the river bed
are your saints.

As widespread as frost
glazing the meadows and coating the branches
are your saints.

As strange as it seems grace makes possible that me and my neighbour
are your saints.

Terry Oakley

God of all Saints and Martyrs

God of all the saints and martyrs who called your people to walk together the path of freedom, gathering as a community of believers,
surrounded by the great cloud of witnesses,
the communion of loved ones,
friends,
leaders,
teachers,
our forebears in faith;
we approach you
Great Ancestor of our ancestors in worship and in love, praying that we might once more draw from the well of your inspiration and be renewed in your presence.

Amen.

Vaughan Jones

Autumn

As the nights draw in, and we pull the curtains a little earlier each evening, we pray that, as we get older, we do not draw the curtains of our mind as well.
Lord, open our eyes to new experiences and new examples of your love and presence in the world. And may we ever continue to praise you for these new insights.

Amen.

Brian Hudson

Remembrance Sunday 1

Opening Psalm 33 paraphrase

All Let the whole world acknowledge its Creator.

Around and within us, dear God, stir the tender emotions of people who regret the past with all its pain and loss whilst looking to the future with yearning for peace and the healing of the nations.

Our greatest fear
 is that we learn too little of the past, and fail to deal with those tendencies in our human nature which lead us, either by folly or fear, W R Z D U G V L O H Y L W D E O H F R Q À L F W and mutual destruction.

‘The good that we will,
 we do not do.
 The evil we would not do,
 that we do.’

Open our hearts, we pray
 in a true spirit of confession and self examination
 O H V W Z H H [D O W W K H F R X U D J H D Q G V D F U L ¿ F H R I R W without measuring the expense of our own commitment to justice, freedom, and peace.
 Set before us the example of One who came and gave everything that we might have life in all its fullness.

‘He was despised and held of no account,
 an object from which people avert their eyes, \ H W K H E R U H R X U D L F W L R Q V
 and by his wounds we are healed.’
 Therefore, save, forgive and heal us dear Christ.
 Amen.

Prayer for peace

God of justice, encircle our earth with your demand for integrity and openness, for fairness and sharing

All and call the nations to live in harmony.

Prince of Peace, heal your divided world of its warring madness.
Still our fears and calm our stormy confrontations.

All and call the nations to live in harmony.

6 S L U L W R I U H F R Q F L O L D W L R Q E U H D W K H \ R X U I H U
R Q D O O F U H D W L R Q D Q G K H O S X V ¿ Q G W K H F R P P F
Z K H U H I R U J L Y H Q H V V P D \ À R X U L V K D Q G À R Z H U L Q

All and call the nations to live in harmony.

2i,

H
Holy Trinity of Hope and Love and Joy,

Generation after generation,
 dear God,
 has lifted its hands and voice to you in search of peace –
 for a world in chaos,
 D ÀD P H Z L W K D Q J H U
 and torn by hatred.

And thus we come on behalf of our generation.

The horrors of war
 are no longer distant or hidden.
 We watch the terror unfolding, the smoke rising,
 the stricken bodies falling, the earth exploding.
 Fear and sorrow well up within us in equal measure.

With deep sighs approaching despair,
 we watch the march of death

D F U R V V W K H ¿ H O G V Z K H U H S H R S O H O D E R X U H G L Q K R and through their towns now turned to rubble.

We sense the breaking of your heart,

W X H Q ¿ Q L V U K I H G R L Q W K V H P D Q H

Brief silence

And we recognise that war is no accident.

We have allowed evil the upper hand.

Just grievances go unheeded, resentments fester

D Q I G Q G L H F U C H R O X F G H V

the wisdom and love that would save us.

Forgive us for wanting peace without working for it,

I R U P L V W D N L Q J W D O N R I V D F U L ¿ F H I R U W K H U H D O V

Come, Lord, mend and remake us and show us the way that leads to true peace.

Amen.

' X Q F D Q : L O V R Q

Remembrance Sunday 3

Sing

All Bless the Lord, my soul, and bless God's holy name.
Bless the Lord, my soul, who leads me into life.

It is God who forgives all your guilt,
Who heals every one of your ills,
Who redeems your life from the grave,
Who crowns you with love and compassion.

The Lord is compassion and love,
The Lord is patient and rich in mercy.
God does not treat us according to our sins,
Nor repay us according to our faults.

As parents have compassion on their children,
The Lord has mercy on those who revere him;
For God knows of what we are made,
And remembers that we are dust.

(Taizé)

So we remember

All those who died in and from this country and those who died from the countries of the Commonwealth, allies and former enemies, the people of Nagasaki and Hiroshima during the two World Wars;
Those who died in the wars that followed – Korea, Vietnam and too many others;
Those who died in the Genocides of African Slavery in the Caribbean and the Americas, the Hox (.)]E5.5 (ylw)4.5 (e)g (o)0.626 (e C02) (f)9.e

Rest eternal grant unto them, O Lord.

All Let light perpetual shine upon them.

Prayers of intercession for Remembrance Sunday

The guns bang; the shells explode; the air is thick with dust and debris.

7KH WHUURULVW RU LV LW IUHHGRP ¿JKWHU GHFLGHV WKDW WKLV LV W pauses to say goodbye to their home and walks out to trigger oblivion.

The leaders of governments worry and plan, power as a tool, power as a burden. People wanting to do what is right.
Lazy people wanting to be led by the crowd. Ignorant people following those who forcefully lead.

The soldier prepares.
The politician plans.

Give them all the desire to do what is right. Not what is quick, nor what is easy, nor what the loudest and most powerful voices shout for, but for what is right in your sight.

We wait.

We shout for blood, we do not give them time to debate and explore the issue from the other point of view. We shout that they should be left to it and nothing should rock our boat. We have a narrow circle of interest and assume that our concerns are yours, O God.

We allow our government to bully and insist on valuing life in this country above that in other places.

All are your children

Really, do you really mean that, do you?
The bomber, the corrupt politician they are yours?

We pray for peace.

We pray for justice.

We pray for peace in homes and hearts not based on complacency but on love and respectful relationships.

We pray for the peace of knowing and doing your will.
In the name of Jesus the Prince of Peace.

Lesley Charlton

Colours for remembering

Following each stanza, a large red petal is attached to a display board to form, ¿UVW D UHG SRSS\

Red is for Anger – anger in the face of injustice, anger that will not stand by and

OHW DQRWKHU SHUVRQ VX HU DQJHU WKDW VD\V WKDW VRPHWKLOJ LV ZURQJ
VWRSSHG DQJHU WKDW JRHV EH\ROG RXU RZQ VHO¿VK FROFHUQV WR FDUH IRU

Red is for anger.

Red is for Love – love which is strong and passionate, not sickly and sentimental, love which knows no limits and encompasses family, friend, neighbour and stranger, love which doesn't count the cost of loving, love which

God has for each one of us. Red is for love.

5HG LV IRU 6DFUL¿FH - VDFUL¿FH E\ WKH IHZ IRU WKH VDNH RI WKH PDQ\ VD
XV OLYLQJ WRGD\ DQG FKLOGUHQ \HW WR EH ERUQ VDFUL¿FH ERUQ QRW MXVW
IURP ORYH VDFUL¿FH VHHQ LQ -HVXV IRU WKH VDNH RI WKH ZRUOG 5HG LV IR

Red is for War – war which cuts short life, war which devastates families and communities, war which destroys the earth God gave us to care for, war which continues in the world today. Red is for war.

5HG LV IRU DQJHU ORYH VDFUL¿FH DQG ZDU 5HG LV WKH FRORXU RI UHPHPEH past, lest we forget the true horror of war. On this day we remember and we commit ourselves to ensuring war does not happen again. Other colours help us to look to the future and a vision of a more caring and just world.

After each stanza, a slightly smaller petal of the appropriate colour is added to

PDNH D VHFRQG VPDOOHU DQG PXOWL FRORXUHG ÀZHU 7KH FRORXUV XVHG DU IRXQG RQ WKH 20\PSLF ÀJ DQG DUH DVVRFLDWHG ZLWK JRRGZLOO DFURVV WKH family.

Blue is for Life – life giving water, sweet and refreshing, without which nothing

DQG UHÀFW LQ WKH VLOHQFH ZH FDQ EH RXUVHOYHV DQG QRW ZKDW RW be. In the silence we discover ourselves, made in God's image, made to live in God's image. Black is for silence.

Gold is for Warmth – warm rays of sunshine on your back, relaxing tired
PXVFOHV HDVLQJ DZD\ DFKHV DQG SDLQV :DUPWK ÀRGV RXU ERGLHV PDI feel safe and secure, warmth reassures us that we are loved, valued and cherished. As we feel the warmth shared between family and friends, we experience the warmth of God enfolding us each day of our lives. Gold is for warmth. r>É (À@rd, pea À0 à0t ue is nÃiGma8025Cwh1 <0(i)03>Tsl(s)3<6- ue is nÀ

$ UHÀHFWLRQ

The Lighting O

For all people who have died of HIV related causes

$ UHÀHFWLRQ

The Lighting O

For Justice

$ UHÀHFWLRQ

7KH OLJKWLQJ RI WKH ÌIWK FDQGOH

To shine into the darkness of stigma

$ UHÀHFWLRQ

The Eucharist

Everyone is very welcome to receive the Eucharist. If you would rather receive a blessing remain standing holding the order of service. If you do not wish to receive the Eucharist please sit.

We hope you will feel free to do what you wish.

The enormity of the realities and complexity of the issues related to people

OLYLQJ ZLWK +,9 DQG $,'6 FRQIUP0 @ U*Q & "^5c Àp ¥ 2hb%Zi,K + ,eI iio + ,PÀL FR $, QI

Communion may be celebrated

B

Thank you life-giving God,
For feeding us and so clothing us in your grace.
Send us out as people of Christ,
Seeking justice, restoration and freedom.
Amen.

Silence and stillness

The lighting of

For hope and restoration

$ UHÀFWLRQ

The blessing

Charity Hamilton

Winter

Lord God, in these cold days, when the frosty air freezes our breath
and chills our bones,
may we know ever more deeply the warmth of your love.

May we recognise it in the welcome of this fellowship,
the kindness of friends or neighbours
the excited laughter of young children and the beauty of nature, stark and shorn against a winter sky.

Let it unfreeze our hearts,
invigorate our worship,
and direct our daily living.

In Christ's name.

Brian Hudson

Index of titles

Exploring the year

Autumn	79
All are your children	85
Based on Psalm 106.....	69
Breads of the world.....	73
Colours for remembering	86
Communion for Harvest.....	71
Earth moves through the seasons, The	69
Eucharistic prayer for All Saints	76
(XFKDULVWLF SUD\HU IRU OD\.'D.\.ZR.U.N.....	66
Eucharistic prayer for Mothering Sunday.....	63
Eucharistic prayer for One World Week.....	74
First Sunday in the New Year	61
For beginning a New Year	61
God of all creation.....	67
God of all Saints and Martyrs	79
Harvest thanksgiving	70
+RORFDXVW OHPRULD.O.'D.\.....	61
/LWDQ\ $QO 6DLQWV$.D.\.....	77
Mothering Sunday – Introduction to a Eucharist prayer.....	65
Mothering Sunday – Eucharist prayer	65
Praise the Lord for Harvest.....	69
Prayer of approach	72
Prayer of Communion.....	72
Prayer for peace	81
Prayers of intercession for Remembrance Sunday	85
Remembrance Sunday 1	79
Remembrance Sunday 2	81
Remembrance Sunday 3	83
Sunday in the early Autumn, A.....	73
True Inclusivity	68
True Saints.....	78
Winter	90
:RUOG$, '6 GD\.....	87

Index of authors

Exploring the year

Lesley Charlton	85
Charity Hamilton	87-89
Brian Hudson	61-63, 79, 89
Vaughan Jones	