

Lent to Pentecost

An opening prayer

Lord God, your commitment to us is clear:
We see it in the life of Jesus.
Your commitment to us is complete:
We see it in the crucifixion of Jesus.

Our commitment to you is often mixed:
What do we want for ourselves?
What shall we give to you?
With what measure of love shall we serve you?

Help us now, in this time of Lent,
to walk with Jesus on his Calvary journey,
that our commitment may be clear
and our love complete.

Duncan Tuck

Hold us tight Lord

Take us Lord, to the end of the road.
Take us Lord, to the cross.
Lead us Lord, to the centre of our being.
Lead us Lord, where things fall apart
where people are denied life.

Hold us tight Lord, as we cross

All So set a table in our hearts,
 and call it acceptance.
Spread a cloth
 and call it forgiveness.
Come and sit with us, Lord,
 where we are,
 as you always do.
Amen.

A prayer after Communion

Bread is broken,
 and his love revealed,
Wine is poured,
 and the promise sealed.
Hands reach out,
 and lives are filled,
Hope is born
 and conflict stilled.
Christ who entered sin and death
 is now our life, our very breath.

Eucharistic prayer for Lent

All Holy God, holy and mighty, holy and immortal:
 Have mercy upon us.

In the beginning your Spirit moved across waste and void
and you formed a world of wonderful beauty out of nothing.
You called forth life in many forms;
you looked on all that you had made
and saw that it was good.
Yet we could not bear to live in harmony with your will.
We spoiled the beauty of creation;
we lost the peace you gave us,
and still we pollute and we destroy.

All Holy God, holy and mighty, holy and immortal:
 Have mercy upon us.

Out of this lawless world you called a people to be your light;
you fed them in their wanderings and gave to them your Law.
Many prophets called them to repentance;
few were those who heard them
and walked the paths of justice and of peace.

All Holy God, holy and mighty, holy and immortal:
 Have mercy upon us.

Finally you sent your own beloved Son.
His was a birth both poor and humble,

But faced with such devastation
we reach out with Ezekiel
to touch the eternal promise that you will make all things new.

All

This is our faith

Broken families, failed relationships,
hard work come to nothing:
– an endless variety of hard knocks
do not prevent your grace
from loving new life into being.

All

This is our hope

Out of the fragments of the past, dear Lord,
build anew your temple within us
and take the sobs and sighs of grief or regret and make of them the first breaths
of our re-creation.

All

This is our prayer,
for you are the bringer of life.
Amen.

Gracious and patient God.
it can be hard to bear rejection at any time
but especially so
when we are trying to give our best to others.
Like your Servant,
 we have sought to console the weary
 with a timely word –
and in a busy world,
 to follow the Maker's instructions,
 to sharpen our ears to your voice,
and to shrug off life's knocks, if we can, with a smile.

Today we rejoice in the final journey
of the Prince of hard knocks,
the Servant King –
 who bore so patiently
 his fragile and short-lived popularity,
 the unpredictability of his followers
 and the lonely walk towards our salvation.
Teach us, therefore, with him,
to lift our eyes
to that greater purpose
you cherish for all humanity
compared to which all present discomfort with our fractious world
fades

Enter our world
of strutting armies and commercial empires
and cure our addiction
to worldly notions of power and glory.

All Come,
cry over our cities,
the endless trail of refugees,

Praise be to God
that you have not changed Lord,
on countless Good Fridays
you let our sins nail you to cruel, unyielding crosses,
your love unbreaking,
powerful beyond our imagining
in powerlessness.

And from your love flows forgiveness
and new opportunity

Lord, we confess our sins,
and we crave your forgiveness

Hear the words of Jesus:
– Father, forgive them, they know not what they do.

David G Cornick

Good Friday 1

Opening Scripture: Romans 4

It was while we were still helpless that,
at the appointed time,
Christ died for us whilst we were sinners
and that is proof of God's love towards us.

And so, since we have been made right
by Christ flows

How many times, dear Lord,
you must have wished for blessed solitude –
from the daily demands of people hungry for hope, anxious for healing or reassurance –
 a crust, a touch, a word from God.
And then the constant surveillance of hostile eyes and ears
 and the nagging drip
 of disapproval.

What wouldn't you give, just now,
for one friendly, familiar face or voice!

You expected it would come to this and in the Garden it is finally settled.
Among the olives
 you have wrapped your love
 around the fragments of humanity,
 the discards and disasters,
 and borne the gross weight
 of history's damned, appalling record.

This is your cup.
It will cost you everything.
But we cannot ask it not to do.
Our life is hidden in your death,
our hope in your despair.
In the very moment
when you feel you are forsaken, poured out,
generations are graced into life.

Good Friday 2

Opening Scripture: John 12 paraphrased

Jesus said:
in very truth I tell you,
unless a grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies,
it remains a solitary seed and nothing more;
but if it dies, it bears a rich harvest.

Whoever loves himself is lost,
but he who disregards himself in this world
will be kept safe for eternal life.
If anyone would serve me, they must follow me;
where I am is where my servant will be.

Now my soul is in turmoil and what am I to say?
'Father save me from this hour?'
No, it was for this very purpose that I came to this hour.

Now is the hour of judgement for this world;
now shall the prince of this world be driven out.
And when I am lifted up from the earth
I shall draw everyone to myself.

This he said to indicate the kind of death he was to die.

2 Corinthians 5

For anyone united to Christ,
there is a new creation:
the old order has gone,
the new order has already begun.

God was in Christ
reconciling the world to himself
no longer holding our misdeeds against us.

Christ was innocent of sin, and yet God made him one with the sinfulness of humanity

so that in him
we might be made one
with the righteousness of God.

Prayers of approach

1. We gather to worship, O God,

Good Friday – Evening

Scripture: Ephesians 1 and 2 paraphrased

Blessed be the God and Father

Lord my heart sings

Lord my heart sings,
like the blackbird,
feathered faunist,
serenading the snowdrops,
heralding the spring.

Lord my soul leaps
like a hare,
bounding across the fields.
Bursting with energy,
heralding the spring.

Lord my spirit soars,
like a bird, high above,
descending to gather twigs,
build a nest,
heralding the spring.

Lord my hearts sinks,
plummeting into black despair,
caught in a severe late frost,
confronted with a sealed tomb,
winter with no hope of spring.

Lord, bird song proclaims your victory,
light floods the garden,
revealing an empty grave,
Christ is risen!
My heart sings.

Risen Lord, you sprang forth,
strode out,
into all the world,
meeting people on their own patch,
my soul leaps.

Living Lord, we are uplifted!
filled with joy and hope
legacy of your costly victory,
gaining direct access to God.
My spirit soars.

Lord my heart sings,
a glorious Easter anthem,
proclaiming Christ is risen,
happiness surges within me,
Lord, I will never stop singing.

The risen Christ in everyday life

Can it be you, Lord?
The way the sun,
filtering through the leaves
strikes the muddy pool
and makes it gleam,
as if it were clear and clean –
 Can it be you, Lord, doing the same with me?

Can it be you, Lord?
The flicker of recognition
in a stranger's face
that quickens to a smile
as though finding

Easter 4

Reading: John 10:1-11

Prayer: Good Shepherd Jesus

Good Shepherd Jesus,
inwardly, we hunger and thirst
but most of the time
no-one suspects we do.
Surrounded by people, even family,
we can still feel isolated, undervalued, even unloved.
We hunger for recognition, intimacy, assurance –
we thirst for absent joy.

Can you, will you, nourish and refresh us,
Good Shepherd Jesus?
Can you, will you, love and cherish us?

We hunger also for peace and for truth.
Our world sets before us a diet of deceptions,
plying us with a thin gruel of empty attractions
and unpalatable attitudes
that neither fill nor feed our spir

nor our feed

Prayers for other people

Lord Jesus Christ,
who, in the image of the Good Shepherd
revealed not only your love
but also your responsibility for all humankind,
we would be good shepherds too.

As we have received all creation as a gift from you and as you have made us brothers and sisters
to one another,
may we watch with you over those people who are least able to protect themselves.

Make us ready to challenge exploitation and abuse
wherever we find it
and to stand with those who feel powerless
against commercial interest and political greed.

Make us sensitive also
to those whose lives stand to be ruined
by personal experiences of rejection or failure.

In our relationships with others help us to imitate
your gentleness and mercy with us.

Amen.

Easter 5

Opening Scripture: Psalm 31 paraphrased

In you, Lord, is our refuge;
you do not expose us to shame
but by your power you save us,
you bend and hear us
and hasten to our rescue:
You lead and guide
where evil will not ensnare us
and, therefore, in you we put our trust
and your face shines upon your servants
with unfailing love.
Amen.

The Gospel: John 14:1-14 'Put your fears to rest'

We do worry, dear Lord, especially about fending for ourselves
when the guidance and confidence
of leaders we have come to depend upon,

Prayers for peace

Lord Jesus,
sometimes we feel that the world is falling apart.
Perhaps every generation has thought the same.
We see the breakdown of family ties,
the gradual erosion of community,
and poor people cast adrift
by a world more wealthy than ever before.
But your life and teaching strike a different note
that calls for building each other up.

Help us find ways to do this.

Give us grace

to discover you in both friend and stranger,
to accept other people with open hand and heart,
to be ready to share whatever we have.

Help us to say and do

whatever will give people greater confidence in you and help them realise how much you care.

Help us make fast with bonds of peace

the unity which your Spirit gives.

Amen.

Easter 6

Prayer

As so often happens, dear Lord
you come to us when least expected,
when we are busy and preoccupied
and least inclined to turn to you.

It makes us wonder
at the depth of your thoughtfulness,
your anticipation of our moods.

God of surprises,
come near when least expected
and make ordinary moments bright.

As to Peter and Thomas, and all their friends,
so to us you come

Just when we are looking back at wasted effort,
or facing the day empty handed,
you turn disappointment into anticipation.
Tired or discouraged,
your companionship transforms us.
God of surprises,
show us how good can come

All Rejoice, heavenly powers! Sing, choirs of angels!
Rejoice, O earth, in shining splendour!
Christ has conquered! Jesus Christ our King is risen!
;`cfm`U`g`mc i`°8Uf_bYgg`jUb]g\Yg`Zcf`YjYf°
Rejoice, O Mother Church!
The risen Saviour shines upon you!
Let this place resound with joy,
echoing the mighty song of all God's people!

Therefore with all your people in heaven and on earth
we sing the triumphant hymn of your glory:

All Holy, holy, holy Lord,
God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest!

All By his power sin is purged,
innocence restored to the fallen,
joy to the mourners;
hatred is vanquished, tyranny laid low;
harmony reigns, heaven and earth are united
and humanity is reconciled with God.
The Morning Star has risen, never again to set.

His light is become our light; his Spirit is ours;
may our lives shine with the radiance of his glory
and this bread and wine lead us to the feasting of the Kingdom,
where we shall be raised up to see him face to face,

Spirit of peace, you pour out your comfort into all who are in conflict, we pray for all those who are caught up in war, violence
and estranged because of hostility.
May your peace lead us towards reconciliation,
so that all are living in unity.

Peace-making Christ

Jesus said to them 'Peace be with you.'

Peace making Christ,
our world is racked with violence and disquiet.
The politics of terror and calculated response
leave behind rivers of broken lives and tormented consciences.
The pressures of living gather like storm clouds
and sometimes they break and batter and bruise us,
driving us to the very edge.

We come open-handed,
eager for your gift of peace,
ready to be enfolded in your Father's blessing, longing to see the universe from the perspective of your love
and know in the depths of our souls
that you are Lord
and that all shall be well.
And every manner of thing be well.

Lord, give us the gift of peace.

Jesus said to them, 'As the Father sent me, so am I sending you.'

Commissioning Christ,
uncertainty reigns.
There is no centre any longer.
People turn this way and that,
seeking a fulfilment which always eludes them,
their laughter tinged with sadness,
their success haunted by hollowness.

The world needs your Word,
for in it lies the Truth
that all life is woven from your Father's love,
and that meaning is to be found in returning to him
and living lovingly.

So we pray for your Church,
the bearers of your commission.
We give thanks for this place
where your word has been spoken and heard
your comfort received and your challenge heeded.
We ask that you will send us out again
to be bearers of your love and heralds of your Word
that the world may hear and rejoice.

Lord commission us anew.

'He breathed on them, and said, "Receive the Holy Spirit."

Pentecostal Christ,
the task seems overwhelming,
our resources so slender
just as once it did in Jerusalem,
the world hustling and bustling,
speaking every language but yours.

Then the breath of your Spirit transformed weakness into strength,
forging the world's hope from the crucible of despair,
reversing Babel
with good news which each heard in their own language.

Touch us with Pentecostal fire,
breathe your Spirit into our lives.

David G Cornick

Transforming Spirit

Gentle breath of God,
whispering comfort to our ears,
bringing messages of hope and healing,
speaking truth and building confidence
come and inspire us now.

Strong wind of God, blowing love through the nations of earth,
challenging injustice and confronting violence
stirring change and bringing liberation,
come and move us now.

Hurricane of God,
sweeping purposefully across the universe,
overturning deceit and hate,
removing hunger and poverty,
eradicating inequality,
come and change us now.

Terry Oakley

Blessed be you Spirit of God

Blessed be you Spirit of God
for you inspire us, you renew our life
you restore our faith and revive our love.

Blessed be you Breath of God
for you inspire us, you remove our selfishness
you relieve our stuffiness and redeem our situation.

Blessed be you Wind of God
for you inspire us, you redirect our priorities
you recharge our enthusiasm and refill our hopes.

Blessed be you, Spirit of God,
for you rouse, refresh, reinvigorate us.

Amen.

Terry Oakley Diavvwo

When we are frightened, holding our breath,
give us confidence to face our fears.
When we are complacent, careless, apathetic,
shake us up, challenge us to care.
When we are selfish, greedy, hateful,
lead us to remorse and repentance.

Here and now, we acknowledge our need for courage.
Here and now, we ask to be awake to injustice.
Here and now, we confess our sin
and promise renewed commitment in love.
Creative, forgiving, holy God forgive us
and empower us with your Spirit.
Amen.

Kairos: Mark 13:33

Suddenly it arrived,
like a violent wind.
Rattling the windows.
Tongues of fire resting on each.
Words are inadequate
to describe this momentous moment.

Spot on. Impeccable timing.
Being in the right place.
At the precise moment.
Anxious awaiting the promised gift.
United in a common purpose.
Resolved to serve.

Even more amazing,
was the resultant change.
In the gathered few.
No longer afraid.
Unlock the door,
got out into the world.

No longer tongue tied.
Speak out boldly.
Proclaim the truth.
To those who want to hear
good news for every one

God, Christ, Spirit

Therefore with all your people in heaven and on earth
we sing the triumphant hymn of your glory:

All

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest!
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest!

Yet we drove him out from among us,
and he whose dying words were of forgiveness
was made the victim of our sin.
From the silence and darkness of death he rose;
his victory is ours by faith,
proclaimed and shared in this, the harvest of his sacrifice.

[The Lord Jesus on the night he was betrayed took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it
and said:

‘This is my body which is broken for you.

Do this in remembrance of me.’

In the same way he took the cup also after supper, saying:

‘This cup is the new covenant in my blood.

Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.

For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup,

'9 i W\Uf]gh]W' dfUmYf'Zcf'h\Y'hfUbgÙ [i fUh]cb

We praise you, almighty God, Creator, Redeemer, Giver of life.
that amid the shadows of our journey you make yourself known.
You brought order and beauty out of primeval chaos;
you gave a child of promise to Abraham and Sarah;
you summoned Moses from the burning bush to fight injustice
and in cloud and darkness revealed your will on Sinai.
Hannah and Manoah saw you in ascending fame,
your name too wonderful to speak.
Elijah knew you in a still, small voice;
you called Isaiah when the temple shook

In the same way he took the cup also after supper, saying:
'This cup is the new covenant in my blood.
Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.
For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup,
you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.']

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.
